ALAMEDA REPORT

The following wireless has been received by the agents from the S. S. Alameda:

"Dec. 22, 1909. Alameda, 8 p. m.
"All well, 130 miles. Fresh north-east wind and rough head sea. Bar. 30.08; temperature seventy, fine clear weather."

HOW IT HAPPENED

The man who was always asking fooling question approached the tough-looking citizen standing on the steps of his shanty nursing a sore head.

"What's the matter with your head?" asked Mr. Buttin.

"Depression in it," was the logical reply.

"What kind of a depression?"

"Business depression."

"H'm! That's a queer place for a business depression. How did you get it?"

"Trying to meddle in other people's business. Now, trot on, stranger, before you get one of those depressions yourself. They are catching."

And Mr. Buttin trotted.

The furniture shown by J. Hopp & Co. is above question one of the finest in the city. They suggest that you make your Christmas gift something that will combine beauty and utility.

Tomorrow is a great "Souvenir Day" at Sachs Dry Goods Co. Dressed dolls given away with each $2 purchase. Tomorrow night noisy things given away to children accompanied by their parents.

Be sure and inspect the big stock of jewelry displayed by M. R. Carter before making your final gift selection. The stock is guaranteed as to quality and the prices are made to suit the pocket of every buyer.

Furniture makes a fine present for all the members of the family. The Coyne Furniture Co. make arrangements with you whereby you can get all the furniture you need by only making an initial payment of ten dollars.

Santa Claus will deliver Christmas gifts purchased at L. B. Kerr's on Christmas morning. Tonight and tomorrow night he will make merry, dancing and singing at the Kerr store. The children will enjoy an hour spent there.

A merchandise order from Ehlers & Co. will settle that vexing question as to what you are going to give as a gift to some friend. The stock is still complete as this popular store always keeps a large stock of reliable merchandise.

When buying presents for a man buy them in a man's store. The Clarion has a large assortment of practical presents for men and invariably you will find their prices more reasonable than elsewhere, which by the way is another reason why you should do your buying for men in the Clarion.

The Cossett Library of Memphis Tennessee and the museum of the Wisconsin State Historical Society were each furnished a collection of Hawaiian antiquities and curios through a client of the Hawaii & South Seas Curio Co., Young building. Send a similar collection to your home town.
